60 U.S. 79 (____) 19 How. 79 ROBERT C. HARRISON, PLAINTIFF IN ERROR, v. JOHN D. COOPER. Supreme Court of United States. It was submitted on printed arguments by Mr. Grant for the plaintiff in error, and on June 24, 1854, it was announced in the court that the judgment below had been affirmed. *80 Mr. Justice NELSON delivered the opinion of the court. There is no just ground of error assigned to the rulings of the Circuit Court, in denying the second motion. They are fully sustained by the authorities cited in the opinion of the court, and which it is unnecessary to repeat. The judgment of the District Court is to be affirmed; but the case goes back for a new trial. Judgment affirmed. Penny Stock Alert: Lenovo On Tuesday, the price of Lenovo (LNVGY) soared on a rumor from CNBC that China's largest Internet company was looking to sell its PCs and mobile phone businesses. The company had been in talks with private equity firm Bain Capital to sell the businesses, and the CNBC rumor led to a rise of about 40% in the stock. The sale of the business would focus on its PC business, and it could fetch about $1.7 billion. Obviously, if the sale of that business did occur, then there might be a move into action by the analyst community, and the stock could soon follow. For now, this firm is worth watching because it has a good quality business and increasing revenue, and even
